

MYTH:

I CAN'T AFFORD TO LIVE IN A RETIREMENT RESIDENCE

TESTIMONIAL:

"When someone says they can't afford to live at The Richmond we say to them—"Have you ever figured up how much it costs you to live in your own home or apartment for a month?" Just make a list of all your expenses for a month. There is heating, electricity or gas, insurance, water, taxes, or rent if you are in an apartment, plus house repairs and appliance replacement. Then comes food—consider how much you throw out when only cooking for one or two people. Do you eat out frequently? Besides you don't need to buy groceries or cleaning supplies."
